CAROL S. DIBBLE.

Cards have been received announcing the approaching marriage of a former Salem girl, Gertrude Tutthill of San Jose California, to Howard W. Curry, of that city. Miss Tutthill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. T. Tutthill, who made their home in Salem about nine years ago. Mr. Tutthill was the owner of the gas works of this city at that time. The Tutthills were one of the prominent families in Salem, and left hosts of friends to regret their departure to the southern state. Miss Tutthill, who has been attending Stanford university, is endowed with much charm of manner and a personality that captured a large circle of acquaintances. The wedding will take place November 3, in San Jose.

Honoring her houseguests, Mrs. W. R. Harper and Mrs. Ralph Lynch, of Chicago, Mrs. C. A. Parker will entertain at dinner guests tomorrow evening at her attractive country home on the Wallace road, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Balston, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart and Miss Elizabeth Irvine, of Albany.

Mrs. L. W. Gleason was the hostess at a charming surprise party given last evening in honor of Mr. Gleason's birthday at their home on South Fourteenth street. A dainty color scheme of pink and white prevailed throughout the rooms and a profusion of dahlias was used for decorative purposes. Five hundred was played during the evening, the guests circling five tables. The card honors were captured by Mrs. G. G. Henderson and Elmer Daus. Assisting the hostess in serving were: Mrs. G. W. Scott, Mrs. Egbert Pruitt and Mrs. C. G. Henderson. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Al Gouffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daus; Mr. and Mrs. William Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harr, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Asseln, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason.

The dignified armory will be transformed into a veritable fairyland of music, lights and flowers this evening, when the annual Guild Dance, given by the St. Paul's Episcopal church takes place at 9:00 p. m. The armory is gayly draped with flags and bunting and hanging baskets of vari-colored flowers and autumn leaves will enhance the decorative beauty of the scene. A dainty pink and white booth, where refreshments of ice-cream and candy will be served, is situated near the entrance of the hall. The decorations are in charge of Monroe Gilbert, G. P. Fox and Edward Gillingham. Professor and Mrs. Montrose Ringler will repeat several of the latest steps endorsed by the National Dancing association, including the one step, two step, fox trot and waltz trot. Stationed to the left of the entrance in a cozy apartment from whence no whispered mysteries of the future can penetrate to outside ears, will be Madame Munnay, the prophetess. Brevets of pretty maidens will carry home-made candies to and fro during the evening. The Peerless Orchestra will furnish the music for the program and the Orpheus Chorus will give several selections. Though the Guild dances have always been marked by their popularity, the fête this year promises to be the largest and most thoroughly enjoyable affair yet given.

POLICY HOLDERS NOT ANXIOUS TO TEST RIGHT TO COLLECT

Preparation To Bring Suit Brings In Amount Due to Eliminate Costs

The members of the Horticultural Fire Relief and the Oregon Merchants Mutual who have failed to pay their assessments are adverse to testing their cases in court according to Insurance Commissioner Wells. Four suits against members who are in arrears have been prepared by Attorney Donald W. Miles but in each instance the members paid their claims and the suits were dropped. In all about $200 has been collected by the receiver and there are about 300 policy holders in Marion county. In the state at large there are approximately 2,500 policy holders who will probably be sued by the receiver if they refuse to pay their assessments. From the funds already collected Insurance Receiver Harvey Wells has been able to pay off about 22 per cent

With Bleeding Heart Draws Bloody Sword

London, Oct. 20.—"With bleeding heart," the Slavs have been forced to draw the sword against their one-time friend Bulgaria, said an imperial manifesto received here today from Petrograd.

This announced to all Russians that Bulgaria had been perfidious to Russia, though assured of gaining Macedonia through other means than war on Serbia.

"The Russian people regard with sorrow the treason of Bulgaria," said the statement, "which was so near to it until these last few days and with bleeding heart draw the sword against her, leaving the fate of the betrayer of the Slav cause to the just punishment of God."
